Fast Horses Will

Race In Afternoon

A meeting of the Driving Association was held in the basement of the Hawa-ian hotel last night, there being present a large number of members interested in the racing proposed for today.Col. McCarthy was elected president in place of Edgar Halstead, resigned.Prince David made the statement that his horses would run in next Saturday's race. W. H. Cornwell's horses will also be entered.J. R. Wilson, Prince David, C. Bellina G. S. McKenzie and W. H. Cornwell were appointed a committee to make final arrangements for today's races.The races today will be sweepstakes of $25 a corner. After all expenses have been paid, the gate money will be divided among the winners.The following program has been arranged for today:Half-mile, free-for-all—Sir Cassimir, Frank S. Merrill's Faust.Half-mile, Hawaiian breed—Maul Rose, Lawrence H.Half-mile, maidens—Shenandoah Jr., cing—Fred Eros, Wayboy.Six furlongs, free-for-all—Aggravation,

McCloskey, 128 pounds; Amarino, 129 pounds; Antelope, 107 pounds.Entries may be made at the post provided they are satisfactory to the owners of horses already entered.Racing will begin promptly at 1 p. m. Admission will be a dollar. The officers of the day will be as follows:Judges, J. W. McDonald, Captain

FOR SATURDAY SADNESS

Mrs. Stufkins—Ain't that real mean of the meat trust, charging three dollars for a turkey? Whatever shall we do, after inviting the Barkins for Thanksgiving dinner?Mr. Stufkins—Oh, naturalize the two old brindle hens and elect them. Stuff 'em well, do 'em brown and say they're sucking geese sent by your aunt up at the Calaveras ranch.

So much mud is irritating when ocean steamers are in port. There's no opportunity for showing off before tourists with our new street sprinkling carts.

If the Territory of Hawaii adopt fair and equal taxation within constitutional lines, taxes need not be burdensome to be adequate for legitimate revenue.

Change personal taxes into an income tax of, say, 25 cents in the $100, and you avoid class legislation, while at the same time making the wealthy pay according to their wealth and lightening the burden now borne by the poor. It is most inequitable that the day laborer, with precarious tenure of employment, should have to pay the same personal taxes as the book-keeper on a moderately good and constant salary.

Count von Buelow—Sire, I congratulate you upon your escape, while craving pardon for having been unable to interpose any protection. I had strolled ten yards away from your side for exercise, and turned just in time to see the wretched woman hurl the hatchet at your majesty's head.

Emperor William—Ten yards away.

Count! Then you are the one to be congratulated. Ten yards from the target at which a woman shies a deadly missile is indeed a most dangerous position. My Dear Count, what a miraculous escape you have had!

The President's proclamation was never intended for those who could only give thanks that they were not as other men. Such could only appreciate their enjoyment of the horse races by going to church first.Justice does not need to go blindfolded in Honolulu at present. She couldn't see the end of the Circuit Court calendar with a telescope, let alone the naked eye.Judge Wilcox is still the boss preacher of practical sermons on the home.
